

How much do Brand O' Guitars cost?

Brand O' Guitars are available through select promotional products distributors; you can get a quote by contacting one directly. For a list of distributors by state click here.

What is the turn around time?

Once artwork is approved guitars are usually completed in 10 – 15 business days.

If I need a guitar right away how soon can I get it?

With approved artwork guitars can be produced in as little as 48 hours.

Do I provide the artwork or can Brand O' Guitars help me with a design?

You or your promotional products distributor can supply artwork in most popular high-resolution format. Brand O' Guitars will format your artwork for proper fit and can also assist with design.

What kinds of guitars are used?

The patent pending Brand O' Guitars artwork application can be applied to virtually any commercially available electric or acoustic guitar or bass. Brand O' Guitars has pre-selected and recommends one of five classic body styles based on their surface area.

Can I send you my guitar to have custom applied?

Brand O' Guitars only applies artwork to guitars purchase through our program. If you have a specific model or body style that you would like to have customized contact your distributor for details.

Once the artwork is applied is the original guitar still considered a new instrument?

All instruments are purchased brand new from a reputable musical instrument dealer but once they are disassembled and modified with new artwork they are no longer considered new by the manufacture.

What about warranty?

All instruments are warranted through Brand O' Guitars, Inc., click here for complete details.